

National Primary Teacher Education Council

Annual Conference
St Hugh's College
St. Margarets Rd
OXFORD OX2 6LE
01865 274900

Redefining the place of primary teachers: implications for teacher education.

Friday 18th/Saturday 19th September 2009

Friday

1pm- 2pm arrival, registration and light refreshments.

Delegates should report to the Porter's Lodge on arrival to collect their room keys. There is parking at the back of the college, to which you will be directed by the porters.

2pm Richard Eke, Chair of NaPTEC

Welcome to NaPTEC.

2.10pm Emma Westcott (GTC) Introduction to the new GTC code: implications for ITE.

3.10 short break

3.20 Liz Francis (TDA): How TDA envisages teachers and teaching: implications for teacher education.

4.20 tea break

4.45 Professor Andrew Pollard : respondent to GTC and TDA input. Pedagogical implications. Discussion.

5.45/6pm break.

6.45pm AGM

Followed by wine reception. All welcome

7.30pm dinner

Saturday

Breakfast will be available between 8am and 9am

Please note that keys must be returned to the Porter's Lodge before 10am and therefore it will be necessary to vacate rooms before attending the morning's sessions.

8.45 Breakfast committee meeting.

9.30 Paul Jackson, Head teacher The Gallions Primary School

A vision for the future of schooling in challenging areas.

10.15 Andrew Machel, head teacher: An enquiry based curriculum

11.00 Coffee

11.20 Dr Christine Farmery: challenging our thinking about pedagogy.

12.35 Concluding remarks: Dr Richard Eke

12.45 Luncheon and farewell.