

Thinking Through Pedagogy for Primary and Early Years

Author

Tony Eaude
(University of Oxford)

ISBN: 9780857250636
208 pages
£18.00

Key Features

- Detailed discussion of what pedagogy means for primary and early years practitioners
- Exercises to help the reader develop specific critical thinking skills
- Case studies linking theory to classroom context
- All chapters linked to the QTS Standards and QAA Benchmarks for Education Studies
- Essential reading for education students

Contents

- What is pedagogy?
- Understanding the social, cultural and political context of pedagogy
- Exploring key concepts
- Analysing how young children learn
- Supporting young children's learning
- Creating a rich learning environment
- Thinking through activities and experiences
- Assessing and planning learning
- Recognising constraints and opportunities
- Developing yourself as a learner and as a teacher
- Facing the challenge of an unknown future

To order call 0845 230 9000 or visit www.learningmatters.co.uk

Learning Matters, 20 Cathedral Yard, Exeter, EX1 1HB

T: 01392 215560 F: 01392 215561 E: info@learningmatters.co.uk
www.learningmatters.co.uk