

Chartered College of Teaching

The professional body for all teachers and leaders

Joe Treacy

chartered.college

@charteredcoll

@charteredcollegeofteaching

/chartered-college-of-teaching

Be connected.
Be informed.
Be inspired.

Introduction

- Our history
- Who we are & why do we exist?
- Curriculum, what does the research say?
- What are the features of membership & what are the benefits of joining?

Who are we?

The professional and Chartered body for all teachers and leaders who want to work in a more effective, informed way.

23,000 members

Our vision:

Teachers are working in the most effective, informed way to provide the best possible education for children and young people now, and in the future.

Our mission:

Connect, inform & inspire teachers

My name is Brooke Blair and I'm five years old.
I've got something to say to you Theresa May.

<https://youtu.be/Cqr30k-pJZM>

Our Chief Executive

Professor Dame Alison Peacock
DBE, DL, Dlitt

Previously Executive Headteacher
Wroxham Primary School

Author, Learning without Limits

The medical sector

Universities
& hospitals

Doctors

Royal
Colleges

Expertise & Professional knowledge

The Department for Health

BMA, DDPU,
MPU (trade union)

Public money

Pay and conditions

The education sector

The education sector

Powerful opportunities

- Professional courage to make informed decisions
- Change of culture, from competition to collaboration
- Opportunity for self led professional development
- Improve pupil outcomes by doing what actually works
- Decreasing workload

Curriculum

What are schools for? (Young, 2011)

Knowledge for all and not just the high achievers

Curriculum is all about power (Counsell, 2018)

To suggest that knowledge is less important than skills is to ignore the way in which our knowledge changes us, including our curiosity and capacity for new knowledge.

Curriculum

CHARTERED
COLLEGE OF TEACHING

Knowledge Vs Skills? (Oates, 2018)

Membership prices

Student Teachers

Free

Member (NQT)

£36 per year

Member

£45 per year

Fellow

Teachers and leaders with 10+ years experience, there is a nomination and application process

£85 per year

Benefits of being a Member

- being up to date in your knowledge of evidence-informed practice and active demonstration to your commitment to the teaching profession
- gaining high-quality career development
- improve pupils outcomes and lessening workload by engaging with the latest in evidence-informed practice
- contribute to raising the status of the profession in line with other sectors
- have the opportunity to share practice and learn from fellow teachers across the country, whilst also being recognised for your expertise

Features of Membership

Be connected. Be informed. Be inspired.

Peer-reviewed journal.

Impact* is the termly, peer-reviewed journal of the Chartered College, connecting research findings to classroom practice, with a focus on the interests and voices of teachers and educators.

- Research and evidence
 - Assessment
 - Science of learning
 - Effective learning: skills and knowledge
 - Curriculum design
-
- Peer reviewed, award winning
 - Guest editors, Professor Dylan Wiliam
 - Opportunity for teachers to be published

CPD packs.

High quality, evidence-informed professional development packs for individuals and whole school CPD sessions

- Based from articles from Impact and The Profession
- Released termly, part of developing a huge resource bank of professional development materials
- Videos, articles, PowerPoint, key words and session plans]
- metacognition, oracy, developing effective learners, growth mind set, attainment grouping

Journal clubs.

Teacher journal clubs are a model of professional development

- Teachers meet to discuss journal articles addressing key issues of practice
- Plan, implement and evaluate changes to their practice based on these discussions
- Many schools around the country are already running their own journal clubs
- We provides a suite of resources and articles to support schools in setting up and running their own journal clubs

My College.

Online platform to develop your teaching and learning.

- Windows into classroom, videos and writing
- Sharing resources, evidence, blogs, book reviews, practice
- Research digests and reviews
- University of Bristol document summary service
- Online copy of Impact, dialogue with fellow members
- Online learning units
- 30% discounts from the publishers SAGE, Crown House, Routledge, Bloomsbury and John Catt

Professional pathways and Chartered Teacher programme

- Autonomy for teachers to audit and pick their own development opportunities
- Quality assured
- Affordable
- Working with experts, subject associations, learned societies, unions
- Rigorous assessment leading to CTeach status

Chartered Teacher programme

- Flexible across contexts and specialisms
- Cohort-based, providing learning community
- Reaccreditation to maintain status
- Building it with the profession and members
- Signposting of relevant CPD opportunities

The right to use post-nominals

Group membership.

Attract, develop and retain

Over 120 schools have purchased memberships for their staff. Get in touch for information on possible discounts.

Benefits:

- Attract new teachers by showcasing your commitment to their professional learning
- Retain staff by investing in their professional development
- Offer individuals opportunities to lead their own development based on their needs
- Tools to deliver whole-school CPD

Joe Treacy
Jtreacy@chartered.colle ge